

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

The Army Field Feeding Program

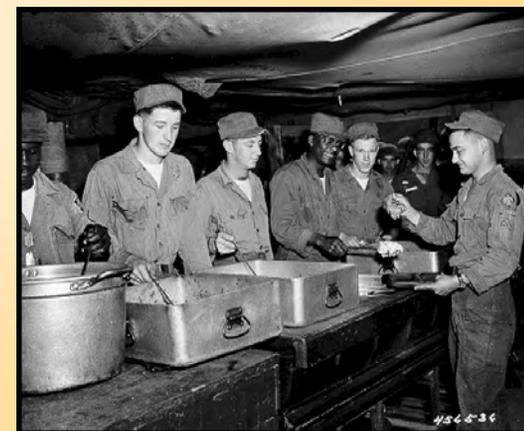

Quality Assurance Division

Presentation

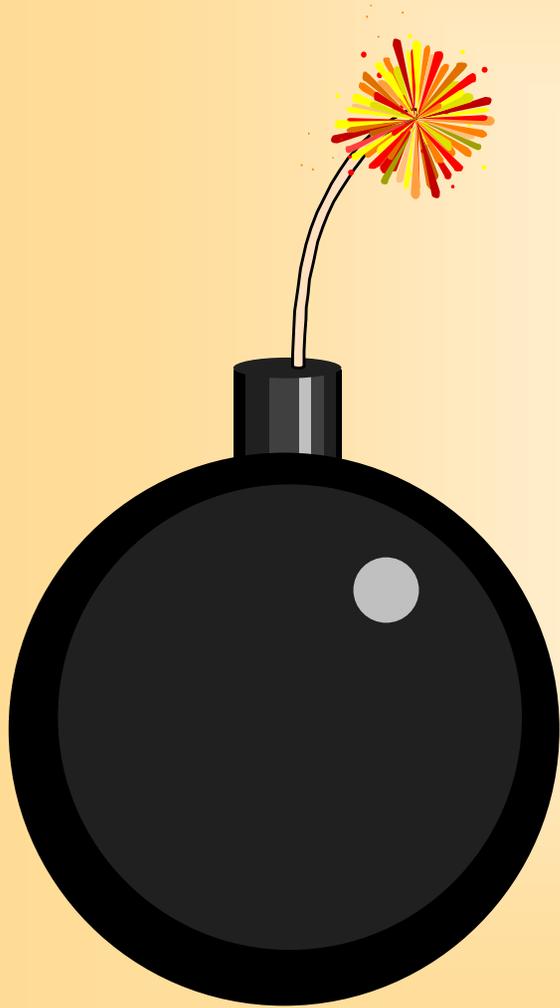

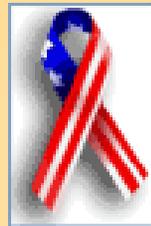

Alphonzo "Rick" Byrd
(804) 734-3005

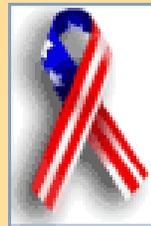

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

An Explosion of Improved Ration Quality

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

Quality through Continuous Review

- 1. Menu Development
- 2. New Products
- 3. Packaging Systems

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

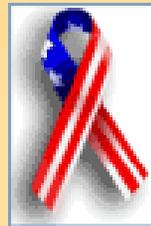

Quality through Industry Review

- 1. Virtual Wartime Vendor
- 2. Defense Priorities (DPAS)
- 3. DSCP Audits

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

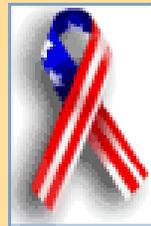

Quality through Supply Management

- 1. Storage Objectives
- 2. Surveillance Inspection
- 3. Forecasting

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

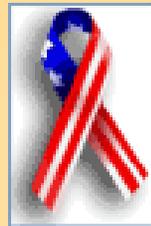

Forecasting guidance will be included in published regulation. This guidance addresses:

- 1. Installation responsibility to MACOMs and MACOM reporting to HQDA.
- 2. Installation/TISA reporting to DSCP and ACES

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

Quality through Field Feedback

- 1. FMAT visits
- 2. AFPAB advisors
- 3. Feedback Reports

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

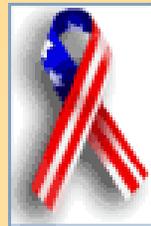

Initial Results include:

- 1. Menus
- 2. Liquid Coffee and Pouch Bread
- 3. Hamburger Patty
- 4. Added Commodities

Army Center of Excellence, Subsistence

MREs Prepositioned Afloat

- Without FRHs; Unfortunate But Necessary Readiness Posture.
- DSCP will contact each customer (large orders) to determine the need for FRHs (No OCONUS delivery)
- Thanks to MACOMs and installations for supporting this temporary situation.
- 241k

2nd Annual Operational Rations Forum

5 April 2002

Facilitator: Loraine Salerno
Chief, Quality Assurance Division

Forum Panel

Richard Faso, Chief,
Operational Rations Business Unit

Judy Alyward – Project Office, Assembled Rations

Susan Harrington, Project Officer, Group Rations

Master Sergeant Georgiann Miller,
NCOIC, Operational Rations